THE DECEITFULNESS OF RICHES

by Heath Rogers

While giving an explanation of the Parable of the Sower, Jesus spoke of the seeds that fell among the thorns: "Now he who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful" (Matt. 13:22).

Riches can be deceitful, it all depends upon our attitude. "But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows" (1 Tim. 6:9-10). What are some ways that riches can deceive us?

1. Riches can take the place of God in our heart. In the parable, the seed couldn't grow because the thorns choked it out. The nutrients that the seed needed from the soil were taken away by the thorns. The same is true with the word of God in man's heart. The cares of the world and the concern for wealth can take our time and mental resources away from the Word of God.

2. Riches can make us indifferent to spiritual matters. With an unhealthy emphasis on obtaining or maintaining our wealth, we can become worldly minded. Suddenly things like the church and our spiritual lives no longer matter. These things are set aside while we pursue money. Many professed Christians have obviously made their job their top priority - even over their family, not to mention the Lord and His church.
